famed BARBA- RESCO

Barbaresco, like its neighbour Barolo, is made solely with the Nebbiolo grape. The two are grown barely 20 km apart in northwest Italy, yet there are wonderfully distinct differences between these famous wines. Barbaresco is still full in body, but is softer, more graceful, with a lovely aromatic intensity. The connoisseur's choice.

BARBARESCO 2006
DOCG

TASTING NOTE: Blackberry and spice notes, with cinnamon and milk chocolate, lead to a full-bodied palate, with a core of ripe, round tannins and lovely sweet fruit on the finish. Best after 2010. Score: 91 (James Suckling, www.winespectator.com, Sept. 30, 2009)
